Gorakhpur: Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath will lay the foundation stone for the 'largest' night shelter in eastern Uttar Pradesh at the All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS) in Gorakhpur on Friday, April 18, the Chief Minister's Office said in a statement on Wednesday.

The upcoming shelter, designed to accommodate up to 500 individuals, will be built at a cost of Rs 44 crore. The construction is being supported by the Power Grid Corporation of India as part of its corporate social responsibility initiative. CM Yogi will officially kick off the project by performing the ground-breaking ceremony, the statement added.

This facility aims to benefit patients and their attendants who travel from far-flung areas for treatment at AIIMS distillery plant worth Rs 1,200 crore under the super mega project at the Gorakhpur Industrial Development Authority (GIDA). Addressing the event, Chief Minister Adityanath said this is not just a Distillery but an ethanol plant. In the first phase, it will produce 350,000 litres of ethanol daily, with plans to increase production to 500,000 litres later on.

The Chief Minister said that ethanol production has increased from 42 lakh litres to 177 crore litres since Prime Minister Narendra Modi approved the production of ethanol from surplus sugarcane. Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath highlighted the transformation under the BJP's leadership in Gorakhpur Industrial Development Authority (GIDA), noting that it has attracted over Rs 15,000 crore in investments, reversing a previous lack of interest in industrial setup. —ANI

Elderly Man Killed In Celebratory Firing During Bride's Farewell Ceremony In Kakori

Kakori (Lucknow): A 70-year-old man died after being struck by a bullet during celebratory firing at a farewell function in the Gahalwara village under Kakori police station limits, police said on Thursday..

According to officials, the incident occurred around 9:00 PM on April 16 during a ceremony held at the home of Chandu, son of Nadir, to bid farewell to his daughter. Around 40 to 50 members of the daughter's in-laws' family had gathered from the Kakori Mod area to attend the event.

During the celebrations, shots were fired into the air, one of which fatally struck Chandu's elder brother, Shamsher alias Shera (70), son of Hashim. Shamsher was returning from offering namaz when a stray bullet hit him. He succumbed to his injuries before reaching the hospital.

Following a preliminary investigation and eyewitness accounts, police registered a case against unidentified individuals under relevant legal provisions. The body was sent for postmortem after standard Panchayatnama procedures were completed.

On April 17, police identified the accused as Imran, 25, son of Jabbar and a resident of Kakori Mod under the Para police station. He had reportedly arrived from the in-laws' side to attend the event. Based on electronic and physical evidence, as well as witness testimony, Imran was taken into custody.

In another case on April 3, a man identified as Sagar, who had been reported missing from Tilak Nagar in the national capital, was confirmed dead in Shamli in Uttar Pradesh, leading to a full-scale investigation by the Delhi and Uttar Pradesh police.

The case was initially reported at Police Station (PS) Tilak Nagar after Sagar's family informed authorities that he had left a hotel he was operating on lease, but never reached home. Raising suspicion against certain individuals and fearing for his safety, the family prompted the registration of an abduction case.

Multiple police teams were deployed for technical and manual surveillance, and the family remained actively involved in the probe, as the suspects were known to them. Several individuals were detained for questioning, though the main suspects remain at large. Authorities have secured non-bailable warrants against them. —ANI

SP Creating Tension For Dalit Votes, Indulging In Narrow Selfish Politics: Mayawati

Lucknow: Bahujan Samaj Party (BSP) supreme Mayawati on Thursday launched a sharp attack on the Samajwadi Party (SP), accusing it of fostering an environment of tension and violence by using Dalits for political gain.

In a series of posts on X, Mayawati said, "It is known that like other parties, SP too is creating an environment of tension and violence by putting forward people of the party, especially Dalits. Its controversial statements, allegations and counter-allegations, and programmes reflect a politics of extreme narrow selfishness."

Taking a dig at SP's outreach to Dalits, she further wrote, "SP can go to any extent to get Dalit votes. Therefore, along with Dalits, other backwards classes and the Muslim community should also avoid falling prey to the political tactics of this party." She added, "Instead of commenting on the history of others, it would be better if the opportunistic Dalits associated with such parties talk about the goodness and struggles of saints, gurus, and great men of their society, due to whom they have become worthy of something." This comes after SP Dalit MP Ramji Lal Suman sparked controversy with his statement on Rana Sanga, a 16th-century Rajput king, calling him a "traitor" for allegedly bringing Babur, the founder of the Mughal dynasty, to defeat Ibrahim Lodi.

Rana Sanga, also known as Sangram Singh I, was the ruler of Mewar from 1508 to 1528 and is revered for his bravery and sacrifices. Suman's statement has been widely criticized, with many calling for an apology and action against him.

'Hope Supreme Court Will Do Justice': Maulana Yasoob Abbas On Waqf Amendment Act

Lucknow: All India Shia Personal Law Board (AISPLB) General Secretary Maulana Yasoob Abbas, on Thursday expressed hope in the Supreme Court, saying the Court's observations while hearing the petitions against the Waqf Amendment Act have raised faith in the judiciary.

Speaking to ANI, Maulana Abbas, while emphasising the importance of resolving issues within the constitutional framework, urged people to uphold unity and brotherhood, and to ensure that peace in the country is not disrupted. "Today is the second day of the hearing, and I hope that the Supreme Court will do justice for us. The way the Court heard the case yesterday has raised our hopes. If the judiciary does not deliver justice, then where will a person go? We are trying to resolve all matters while staying within the framework of the Constitution," he said.

"I will appeal to the people to maintain brotherhood and unity among themselves and not let anything happen that would disturb the peace of the country," Maulana Yasoob Abbas added.

The Supreme Court, for the second consecutive day, will hear a batch of petitions challenging the Constitutional validity of the Waqf (Amendment) Act, 2025.

The top Court on Wednesday indicated that it may pass an interim order to stay certain key provisions of the recently passed Waqf (Amendment) Act, 2025, and also expressed concern over violence in West Bengal's Murshidabad district.

A three-judge bench of Chief Justice of India Sanjiv Khanna and Justices PV Sanjay Kumar and KV Viswanathan said, "The one thing that is very disturbing is the violence that is taking place. The issue is before the court, and we will decide."

The bench didn't pass any order but suggested that it may stay certain provisions, including the inclusion of non-Muslims in Central Waqf Council and Waqf Boards, powers of collectors in deciding dispute over Waqf properties, and provisions on de-notifying properties declared as waqf by courts. CJI Khanna was about to dictate the order, but Solicitor General Tushar Mehta representing Centre and other counsels who were appearing for parties defending the Act said they should be heard before passing the interim order.

The bench then posted the matter for further hearing on Thursday at 2 pm. —ANI

'Justice Will Be Served': Maulana Khalid Rasheed Ahead Of Sc Hearing On Waqf Amendment Act

Lucknow: All India Muslim Personal Law Board (AIMPLB) member Maulana Khalid Rasheed Farangi Mahli on Thursday said he was hopeful that justice will be delivered by the Supreme Court as it will resume hearing on the petitions challenging the recently passed Waqf Amendment Act for the second consecutive day.

Speaking to ANI, AIMPLB member said that the Supreme Court made raised concerns about the religious buildings constructed centuries ago. "We are hopeful that arguments will be heard in the Supreme Court today in relation to the Waqf Amendment Act of 2025. We are hopeful that justice will be served in all the petitions that have been filed. The Supreme Court has said that if this Act is implemented, what will happen to (masjids) buildings constructed in the 12th and 13th centuries...Along with this, what will happen to the freedom of religion granted in Articles 25 and 26 if this Act is implemented? This makes us hopeful that the religious freedom guaranteed by the Constitution will remain," Rasheed told ANI.

The Supreme Court is likely to pass an interim order on Thursday concerning the recently enacted Waqf (Amendment) Act, 2025, following petitions filed by multiple parties, both supporting and opposing the contentious legislation.

On Wednesday, following a two-hour-long hearing, the apex court indicated that it may stay certain key provisions of the Act, including the inclusion of non-Muslims in the Central Waqf Council and Waqf Boards, powers of Collectors on deciding disputes over Waqf prop-

All India Muslim Jamaat Issues Fatwa Against TVK Chief Vijay Over Iftar Party

Bareilly: All India Muslim Jamaat president Maulana Shahabuddin Razvi Bareilvi has issued a fatwa against Tamil Nadu's actor-turned-politician Vijay, the President of the Tamil Nadu Vijay Karthik (TVK) party.

Speaking to ANI on Wednesday, Razvi Bareilvi criticised Vijay for allegedly portraying Muslims negatively in his movies and for inviting individuals involved in gambling and liquor consumption to his Iftar party.

"He (Vijay) has formed a political party and maintained cordial relations with Muslims. However, he has portrayed Muslims in a negative way as those who spread terrorism in his films. Gamblers and liquor consumers were invited to his Iftar party. Due to all this, Sunni Muslims of Tamil Nadu are angry with him. They asked for a fatwa. So, in my answer, I have issued a fatwa mentioning that Muslims should not stand with Vijay," Maulana Razvi Bareilvi said. Recently, TVK chief Vijay filed a petition in the Supreme Court challenging the Waqf (Amendment) Act 2025.

On Wednesday, the Supreme Court heard a batch of petitions challenging the Constitutional validity of the Waqf (Amendment) Act, 2025.

The Supreme Court indicated that it may pass an interim order to stay certain key provisions of the recently passed Waqf (Amendment) Act, 2025, and also expressed concern over violence in West Bengal's Murshidabad district. A three-judge bench of Chief Justice of India Sanjiv Khanna and Justices PV Sanjay Kumar and KV Viswanathan said, "The one thing that is very disturbing is the violence that is taking place. The issue is before the court, and we will decide."

The bench didn't pass any order but suggested that certain provisions may stay, including the inclusion of non-Muslims in Central Waqf Council and Waqf Boards, powers of

with the proceedings, but the proviso will not be given effect. Third, regarding Waqf Boards and Coun-collectors in deciding disputes over Waqf properties and provisions on de-notifying properties declared as waqf by courts. During the hearing, the bench said that it is considering passing an interim order which will balance equities.

"We will say - Whichever properties were declared by a court to be Waqf will not be de-notified or be treated as non-Waqf, whether it is Waqf by user or not. Second, the Collector can continue cil... ex officio members can be appointed, but the other members have to be Muslims," said the bench.

CJI Khanna was about to dictate the order, but Solicitor General Tushar Mehta representing Centre and other counsels who were appearing for parties defending the Act said they should be heard before passing the interim order.
